Clarkson Crolius, Esq. was sworn in as an additional THE ROCKWELL JEWELRY ROBBERY.—Charles

J. Williams was tried for burglary in the third degree, in breaking into the store of Messrs. E. & S. S. Rockwell, No. Astor House, on the night of the 3d or 4th of September, and stealing watches, jewelry, &c. of the value of some $15,000 to $18,000, none of the property having been recovend. After the discovery of the robbery, a centre bit, an iron instrument for digging out the bricks from the partition wall, a dark lanthorn, and a silk handkerchief, were found in the complainants' store. The adjoining store was untenanted, and entered by the front door, and then the brick wall dug through in Rockwell's store. A boy named Evans, clerk in an adjoining store, No. 7

Astor House, deposed that the key of the empty store was kept at No. 7, and that on Thursday before the Sunday on which the store was robbed, a man resembling the accused is size, appearance, &c. came in and got the key, and went into the vacant store to look at it, and then returned the key. He thinks the accused is the man, but cannot swear posi-Another clerk in No. 7, said the person who got the key resembled the size, &c. of the accused. He had the key for nearly three hours. Had seen the prisoner before in the street.

Eliza Harris deposed that she washed for accused a handkerchief of the size, color and figure of that found in Mr. Rockwell's store, but thinks the one shown is not the one she washed, though like it.
Officer Sweet (with J. L. Smith) arrested the accused at Feck Slip, at a house called the Bay Mare. Identified the handkerchief in Court as the one found in Rockwell's store Thomas Warner, Esq. counsel for the ascused, produced the affidavit of constable Young, of the Philadelphia Police, and other witnesses, showing conclusively that the accused was in l'hiladelphia all of the day the key was obtained of No. 7 Aster House—that he was in that city on Friday and all of Saturday of that week—that he stand all night of Satuntil half-past 10 o'clock on Monday, the day after the rob-bery was committed. 1. Its bracing, strengthening and clarifying qualities;

2. Its gently stimulating the action of the skin;

3. Its producing and encouraging a reaction in the bulb or toot, and particularly in the pulp, which receives the vessels and nerve, giving life and vigor to the hair;

4. Its equalizing the circulation of the fluids;

5. Its freeing the skin from the effects of perspiration, scurf, and dandriff, and disposing the hair to curl;

6. And its frequent use will preserve the hair in beauty and health to the latest period of life.

30 ANN STREET, ALISON'S HISTORY OF EUROPE.

The demand for this work is so great that we have not been able to supply copies. It is destined to almost entirely supercede the cumbrons original, been written in a clear and perspicuous style, which it is a pleasure to read. Every father of a family should place a copy in the hands of his children.
OPINION OF THE HON. R. M. SHERMAN.

FAIRFIELD, Ct., Oct. 2, 1843. My Dear Sir-I have taken all but two of the sixteen numbers of Alison's History, and have read half of it. It is so FILLED WITH TEDIOUS AND USELESS DETAILS, AS GREATLY TO IMPAIR ITS VALUE. The period it embraces is one of the most interesting in the annals of the human race, and all the important facts are given with fidelity. BUT THE VAST COM-PILATION OF FACTS, WHICH ARE NEITHER INTERESTING NOR INSTRUCTIVE. PREVENTS ITS VERY GENERAL PERUSAL. I was much gratified to find by the New World of Septem-er 23d, that Edward S. Gould, Esq., had abridged the work. reducing the work to one octavo volume. I WILL SUSPEND MY FUTURE ATTENTION TO THE COPY WHICH I NOW HAVE, AND AWAIT THE ARRIVAL OF THE ABRIDGMENT. A dollar is stated to be the price. I enclose that sum, and wish you would have the goodness to procure the volume for me, and sent it by the first opportunity. Very truly yours, R. M. SHERMAN

THE ONLY COMPLETE EDITION. FRICE FIVE DOLLARS, IN EXTRA LEATHER BINDING, HARPER & BROTHERS WILL PUBLISH

ON THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 9th, ALLISON'S HISTORY OF EUROPE. IN FOUR SPLENDID OCTAVO VOLUMES. The publishers of Alison's History of Europe having co stered their reprint, from the third London edition, would reand the purchasers of the preceding numbers, and also ther friends who have been waiting to procure the work entire that the author's narrative is now presented to them unmutilated. Any change or omission, unsanctioned by the author would so disparage the original work, that its chief recom nendations and its intrinsic value would be sacrificed. The seventy-sixth chapter, on the last war between the Un ted States and Great Britain, contained some mistakes, which rendered it advisable, in conformity with Mr. Alison's own lesire, to correct those errors of fact, as well as his inadequate lelineations of our Republican institutions. Chancellor Kent. aving transmitted to Mr. Alison a packet of critical remarks kindly gave us a copy of them, which, with Mr. Alison's corections, have been inserted in the present edition. A series of explanatory notes has also been appended, which have been approved by competent judges, and tend materially to rectify Mr. Alison's principal errors, and to enhance the value of the been supplied. The original work was issued without any Index, so that any particular document or fact could with dir ficulty be discovered by the reader. The very copious Index which is now supplied (without additional expense to the pur chaser) adds largely to the value of the work, and so facil tates the references which may be necessary, that every prominent occurrence and record amid all its multitudinous sub ects can be traced throughout the history. With these essential improvements, the publishers submit this important work to general patronage, in the confident as surance that, exclusive of Mr. Alison's monarchical and aris ocratical predilections, American citizens will be gratified with the acquisition of this standard history of the modern French Revolution, WITHOUT ABRIDGEMENT, at less than one tenth of the price which must be paid for the English copy The work, neatly and firmly bound in sheep, with marble edges, may now be obtained of the publishers and of the bookellers generally. THE ONLY COMPLETE EDITION.

PRICE FIFTY CENTS! HARPER & BROTHERS HAVE NOW READY, THE MYSTERIES OF PARIS. TRANSLATED FROM THE FRENCH OF EUGENE SUE, BY CHARLES H. TOWN, ESQ.

"The superiority of this translation over all others lies in the fact of its extreme fidelity to the original," Boston Evening Gazette.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

More elegantly done, and has certainly the advantage in form." I Brother Jonathan. "In revenge, disparages the translation of the Harper's edition, and quotes extracts from it and his own, to show that the same quantity of the original is made more of in his edition than that of the Harpers This is an unfortunate move for --- , as, in the estimation of all whose tastes are not led captive by expletives and commonplace slang, his translation sinks immeasurably below that of the Harpers. The former is full of the 'horrible murder' style, and was evidently made to catch the lovers of the bombastic and extravagant; the style of the latter is pure and chaste, and pleases the judicious reader by the good taste displayed in even the most tasteless ortion of the original." [New York S. Bulletin.
"Mr. Town's translation is spirited, and retains the power portion of the original." and interest of the original in a remarkable degree.'

[N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

"WE HAVE TAKEN PAINS TO EXAMINE ALL THREE OF THE EDITIONS PUBLISHED IN THIS COUNTRY, AND WE DO NOT HESITATE TO PRONOUNCE THE Messys. HARPER'S EDI-TION DECIDEDLY THE BEST. We ought to know something about it for we have employed our leisure for three months in reading and translating the original work from the French. OUR ADVICE TO THOSE WHO WISH TO OBTAIN THE WORK IN ITS BEST FORM, IS TO PURCHASE THE MESSRS. HAR-PER'S EDITION." [Boston Daily Mail.
"One who has read the story in French expresses the opinon that the spirit and power of the original is retained in a remarkable degree. Mr. Town, the translator, is one of the best French scholars in this country, having resided in France and made himself familiar with her literature and language."

[Brooklyn Daily News.

"The translator, Mr. Charles H. Town, has performed his task with faithfulness and ability.

CONVENIENCE AND ECONOMY.

SAMUEL PIERCE'S NEW PATENT PREMIUM KITCHEN RANGES.—The subscriber invites the public to call at his Range Establishment, 111 Fulton street, and examine his assortment of Ranges, varying in prices from $25 to $60. These Ranges are so constructed as to be used with any kind of fuel, and with the ordinary kitchen utensils. The ovens are always ready for baking, without hindra nee to the other necessary cooking operations. They are a certain curs for smoky chimneys; and also allow all the effluvia from the cooking to escape up the chimney. One of the strongest evidences that these ranges are superior to any others, is that there are no less than three persons infringing on the patent right of the proprietor, against whom the public are cautioned, as suits have been instituted against them for infringement. These Ranges are warranted to give entire satisfaction in every case.

THOMPSON'S TRUSSES.—Office removed to 13 Beekman street. About 200 of the first physicians and surgeons of New York have given their decided preference to this Truss as you can graduate the pressure from one to 56 pounds on the rupture without a back pad, which does so much injury to the spine. A fair trial being the best test of its superiority, it is applied and six days trial given, and if it does not retain the rupture, while performing every kind of exercise or coughing, and give perfect ease—in a word, if it is not satistory in every respect, the money is cheerfully returned, and this is the only condition on which you should buy any truss. A permanent cure is easily effected, and warranted if directions are followed.

Offices are fitted up at No. 13 Beekman street, one door from Nassau, exclusively for applying this truss, and all are invited to come and try for themselves.
